Local Distillery Exhibits True Essence of Connecticut Quality

By: Theodora Antar

Waypoint Spirits, a local craft distillery in Bloomfield, CT is the perfect destination for fun, food, and outstanding drinks!

With the holidays right around the corner, many people are always looking for something fun and new to do with family and friends who may be in town. It is also important to many people to shop local and support small local businesses throughout the state.

Waypoint is a great local destination that has a little bit of something to offer for everyone. From their specialty drinks to their outstanding appetizers, they never dissapoint!

Currently, Waypoint is the only distillery in the state that allows guests to sit down and enjoy cocktails while also viewing their production facility. You can enjoy their perfectly crafted cocktails and light food while seeing where they make the product.

They also serve many liquor stores and restaurants throughout the state.

The distillery, which was originally opened in 2015, was re-started by owners Joe, Eriks, and Tony in 2020 with a dream to provide the best quality local spirits to its customers. The distillery was created in the pursuit of true craft spirits that capture the true essence of Connecticut. Everything is meticulously crafted on site and made with only the best ingredients.

Waypoint also encompasses many aspects of CT, and even their logo is a tribute to former CT hockey team The Hartford Whalers.

They encourage guests to "find their Waypoint" which they explain is a state of mind on life's journey with many destinations (Waypoints) along the way.

"Only a handful of distilleries call CT home and we really wanted to introduce customers to the true essence of CT quality." Owner Joe Tine explained.

He went on to note that "There are so many big brands in the market and our goal is to let people taste local spirits to raise the bar on expectations. Our hope is that folks buy/try local brands to taste the difference."

Currently, Waypoint vodkas and Waypoint gins are being sold in stores all over the state, and they are working on a molasses-based rum which will be coming

In addition, they also offer canned cocktails which include their vodka mint lemonade and vodka iced tea lemonades. The canned cocktails are also available in stores, as well.

Waypoint offers a convenient store locator tool on their website which lists all participating retailers and restaurants that carry Waypoint products.

They currently are located in almost 200 locations throughout the state and growing. Ask your server if they carry Waypoint next time that you go out!

One of the things that truly makes Waypoint unique is their remarkable taproom.

The taproom was designed with complete attention to detail, and provides a welcoming, hospitable atmosphere for guests to enjoy.

Tine explained that "The goal of our large and beautiful taproom is to provide a distillery experience along with the best cocktails using our spirits. We specialize in seasonal cocktails along with perfectly paired appetizers."

Everything that is served is made with care and crafted to perfection, giving guests an experience that they will never forget.

It's a great place to catch up with old friends or to host your next large event. The specialty spirits offered in the taproom are continuously updated, as well. The Wintonbury Select is the taproom only line of spirits.

The Wintonbury Select spirits are hand crafted in small batches, making it a must to try them before they run out.

There are also some great seasonal distillery only products which are not available in stores.

Currently, the flavors being offered in the taproom are Apple Pie Vodka, Pumpkin Rum, Coffee Liqueur, Bourbon, Cardamom Gin, and Citrus Vodka. Candy-Cane Vodka is also coming soon, just in time for the Holidays!

Find your Waypoint this holiday season and keep a little piece of CT in your liquor cabinet. The taproom is the perfect spot to come for a tour and to stay for the cocktails! The drink menu for Waypoint is available on their website and can be viewed online from any device.

In addition, all upcoming taproom events and special offerings can also be found by visiting their website www. drinkwaypoint.com or by scanning the QR code below.

Remember the significance of supporting local businesses and to shop locally this holiday season! Waypoint also offers gift certificates available for nurchase, as well

What to Do if You Have a Chimney Fire

If you realize a chimney fire is occurring, follow these steps:

☐ Get everyone out of the house, including yourself.

☐ Call the fire department.

If you can do so without risk to yourself, these additional steps may help save your home. Remember, however, that homes are replaceable, but lives are not.

 \square Close the glass doors on the fireplace.

☐ Close the air inlets on the wood stove. Once the chimney fire is over, call a professional chimney sweep to inspect your chimney for damage. Chimney fire damage and repair normally is covered by homeowner insurance policies. Until next month be safe!

Cooking Safely

Many families gather in the kitchen to spend time together, but it can be one of the most hazardous rooms in the house if you don't practice safe cooking behaviors. Cooking equipment, most often a range stove top, is the leading cause of reported home fires and home fire injuries in the United States. Cooking equipment is also the leading cause of unreported fires and associated injuries. It is a recipe for serious injury or even death to wear loose clothing (especially hanging sleeves), to walk away from a cooking pot on the stove, or to leave flammable materials, such as potholders or paper towels, around the stove. Whether you are cooking the family holiday dinner or a snack for the children, practicing safe cooking behaviors will help keep you and your family safe.

The following are some safety practices recommended by the Terryville Fire Department: Watch What You Heat

☐ The leading cause of fires in the kitchen is unattended cooking.

☐ Stay in the kitchen when you are frying, grilling, or broiling food. If you leave the kitchen for even a short period of time, turn off the stove.

☐ If you are simmering, baking, roasting, or boiling food, check it regularly, remain in the home while food is cooking, and use a timer to remind you that you are cooking

☐ Stay alert! To prevent cooking fires, you have to be alert. You will not be if you are sleepy, have been drinking alcohol, or have taken medicine that makes you drowsy.

Keep Things That Can Catch Fire and Heat Sources Apart

☐ Keep anything that can catch fire potholders, oven mitts, wood utensils, paper or plastic bags, food packaging, towels, or curtains – away from your stove

☐ Keep the stove top, burners, and oven

☐ Wear short, close-fitting or tightly rolled sleeves when cooking. Loose clothing can dangle onto stove burners and catch fire if it comes into contact with a gas or electric burner.

Use equipment for Intended Purposes Only

Cook only with equipment designed and intended for cooking, and heat your home only with equipment designed and intended for heating. There is additional danger of fire, injury, or death if equipment is used for a purpose for which it was not intended.

Protect Children from Scalds and Burns

☐ Young children are at high risk of being burned by hot food and liquids. Keep children away from cooking areas by enforcing a "kid-free zone" of 3 feet around the stove.

☐ Keep young children at least 3 feet away from any place where hot food or drink is being prepared or carried. Keep hot foods and liquids away from table and counter edges.

☐ When children are present, use the stove's back burners whenever possible.

□ Never hold a child while cooking, drinking, or carrying hot foods or liquids. ☐ Teach children that hot things burn.

☐ When children are old enough, teach them to cook safely. Supervise them

Prevent Scalds and Burns

☐ To prevent spills due to overturn of cooking utensils or appliances containing hot food or liquids, use the back burner whenever possible and/or turn pot handles away from the stove's edge. All appliance cords need to be kept coiled and away from counter edges. ☐ Use oven mitts or potholders when moving hot food from ovens, microwave ovens, or stove tops. Never use wet oven mitts or potholders as they can cause scald burns. ☐ Replace old or worn oven mitts. ☐ Treat a burn right away, putting it in cool water. Cool the burn for 3 to 5 minutes. If the burn is bigger than your fist or if you have any questions about how to treat it, seek medical attention immediately.

Install and Use Microwave Ovens Safely

☐ Place or install the microwave oven at a safe height, within easy reach of all users. The face of the person using the microwave oven should always be higher than the front of the microwave oven door. This is to prevent hot food or liquid from spilling onto a user's face or body from above and to prevent the microwave oven itself from falling onto a user.

☐ Never use aluminum foil or metal objects in a microwave oven. They can cause a fire or damage the oven. ☐ Heat food only in containers or dishes that are safe for microwave use. ☐ Open heated food containers slowly away from the face to avoid steam burns. Hot steam escaping from the container or food can cause burns. ☐ Foods heat unevenly in microwave ovens. Stir and test before eating. How and When to Fight Cooking Fires ☐ When in doubt, just get out. When you leave, close the door behind you to help contain the fire. Call the fire department – dial 9-1-1 after you leave.

☐ If you do try to fight the fire, be sure others are already getting out and you have a clear path to the exit.

☐ Always keep an oven mitt and a lid nearby when you are cooking. If a small grease fire starts in a pan, smother the flames by carefully sliding the lid oven the pan (make sure you are wearing an oven mitt). Turn off the burner.

Do not move the pan. To keep the fire from restarting, leave the lid on until the pan is completely cool.

☐ In case of an oven fire, turn off the heat and keep the door closed to prevent the flames from burning you or your

☐ If you have a fire in your microwave oven, turn it off immediately and keep the door closed. Never open the door until the fire is completely out. Unplug the appliance if you can safely reach the

☐ After a fire, both ovens and microwaves should be checked and/or serviced before using again.

Nuisance Smoke Alarms ☐ If a smoke alarm sounds during normal cooking, press the pause button if the smoke alarm has one. Open the door or window or fan the area with a towel to get the air moving. Do not disable the smoke alarm or take out the batteries. ☐ You may have to move the smoke alarm farther away from the kitchen. Always follow the manufacturer's instructions for determining the proper location of smoke alarms.

☐ You may have to move the smoke alarm farther away from the kitchen. Always follow the manufacturer's instructions for determining the proper location of smoke alarms. ☐ Treat every smoke alarm activation as a likely fire and react quickly and safely to the alarm.

Candle Safety

The U.S. Fire Administration and the Terryville Fire Department are urging the public to keep safety in mind when using candles. According to the U.S. Fire Administration, candles cause an estimated 15,600 fires in residential structures, 150 deaths, 1,270 injuries, and $539 million in estimated direct property damage each year.

Some candle fire statistics

 \square Over half (55%) of home candle fires start because a candle is too close to some combustible material.

 \square More candle fires (38%) begin in the bedroom than in any other room. ☐ Falling asleep is a factor in 12% of home candle fires and 26% of the associated deaths. ☐ Half of all civilian candle fire deaths occur between midnight and 6 a.m.

☐ December is the peak month for candle fires; Christmas is the peak day.

☐ Young children and older adults have the highest death risk from candle fires. ☐ The risk of a fatal candle fire appears higher when candles are used for light.

Tragic and Preventable Candle Fires ☐ Three sleeping boys died when a candle left burning in the living room ignited nearby combustibles.

☐ A man and his three children died in a fire when wax from an unattended candle dripped on curtains, igniting them. ☐ Eleven members of a family died in a fire when a lighted candle ignited a mattress.

☐ Two children died in a fire when a lighted candle rolled under the Christmas

☐ A mother and young baby died when a burning candle used for religious observances ignited cabinetry.

Fact: The majority of candle fires result from human error and negligence.

Candle Fire Safety Tips

☐ Avoid using lighted candles. ☐ If you do use candles, ensure they are in sturdy metal, glass, or ceramic holders and placed where they cannot be easily knocked down.

☐ Keep candles out of reach of children and pets.

☐ Set a good example by using matches, lighters, and fire carefully.

☐ Children should never be allowed to play with matches, lighters or candles. □ Never put candles on a Christmas tree.

☐ Never leave the house with candles burning.

☐ Extinguish candles after use. ☐ Establish a fire-safe home, especially a safe sleeping environment.

☐ And NEVER leave burning candles unattended.

☐ Consider using LED Tea Lights Have a safe holiday and winter season!

How Stress Can Lead to Injury And How You Can Stop It

While it's pretty intuitive that physical stressors can cause physical injuries, you might not know that mental and emotional stress can also lead to musculoskeletal injuries that require physical therapy.

That's right -- a lack of sleep, a busy workweek, and other stressful life events can make you more prone to injury.

Why is this, and how can you prevent the stresses of everyday life from causing you bodily harm?

When you experience stress, your body does a few things that naturally put you at an increased risk of injury.

First, stress causes your nerves to function inefficiently.

Second, stressful situations lead to higher levels of cortisol in the body, a hormone that inhibits muscle repair and immune system function.

If you're always dealing with stressfulsituations, then you're constantly leaving your body open to physical injury.

You can prevent injuries with all sorts of physical means, but if you fail to address your mental and emotional health, you'll still be at a heightened risk. While you might not be able to prevent every stressful situation from ever happening, you can control how you react when one

A few simple things you can do to prevent mental stress are to get enough sleep, maintain a healthy diet, and drink plenty

If any of these basic stress inhibitors are absent from your daily routine, focus on incorporating them in to alleviate some of

That said, practicing simple breathing exercises or another form of meditation can also be helpful, especially if you're looking for a physical way to mentally unwind after a stressful day.

While learning about how much stress hurts you can be even more stressful, you can find some peace knowing that with a few simple changes to your routine, you can prevent your stress from causing physical injury.

If you are suffering from a stress related physical injury, like frequent neck pain or headaches, give us a call and we'd be glad to help get you back to moving better, feeling better, and living better!

Church News

The First Congregational Church of Plymouth helped kick off the Christmas holiday season by hosting the Plymouth Tree Lighting on the Green, and we are continuing to celebrate the season not just through the 25th of December, but through our annual observance of Epiphany on Sunday, January 2. Epiphany, also known as Three Kings Day, is widely observed in many parts of the world with parades and family celebrations.

At our church, we receive star gifts, which are paper stars with a word that represents each person's gift for the year to come. It's a nice way to welcome the year with a focus on gifts of the spirit.

Calendar of Events for the First Congregational Church at Christmas Season:

Sunday Worship at 10 AM, Coffee Hour following.

Dinner Church Wednesdays at 6 PM. Buffet dinner with communion. $5 suggested donation/free for children. Friday, December 17, 5-6 PM: "The Vine" Wine Tasting and Spirited Conversations. Our topic for December is "Gifts" Sunday, December 19 at 6 PM: Blue Christmas Worship service for those who are grieving or just not feeling the holiday spirit. Christmas Eve Candlelight Worship Service: Friday, December 24 at 10:30 PM.

Star Gifts Sunday: January 2, 10 AM

Worship services stream on our Facebook page each Sunday. Find out more information and sign up for our newsletter at our website, plymouthetchurch.org.

News and Events from Terryville Congregational Church

Dear Plymouth Residents & Friends: About ten years ago or so, several pastors from the Midwest got together and came up with four themes to help guide their parishioners through the Season of Advent & Christmas. Since that time, the movement has grown. The idea behind their themes is that - when we are not intentional, reflective, and prayerful - Advent and Christmas can get overtaken with a focus on material things, consumerism, commercialism, busyness, and to-do lists that in no way keep us centered on Christ. Therefore, these pastors named this movement The Advent Conspiracy. Let's all conspire to keep faith as the center of our lives and the center of this sacred season.

The four themes of the Advent Conspiracy are: 1) Give More (be generous with the whole of your being - your time, talent and treasure), 2) Spend Less (giving doesn't have to mean material goods or lavish monetary items), 3) Worship Fully (keep a focus on worshiping and thanking God), and 4) Love All (remove judgments and reach out in love and concern for all people this Season).

I hope and pray that we all can remember what this Season is all about and draw closer in our relationship with God & with neighbor. Merry Christmas! Events happening at Terryville Congregational Church in December:

--Worship & Sunday school every Sunday at 10am, followed by Coffee Hour & Fellowship

--Holy Communion Celebrated during worship on the 1st Sunday each month

--Christmas Eve Services: Friday, Dec. 24 at 3pm & 11pm

News From First Baptist

We at First Baptist Church in Plymouth would like to invite you to join us in our celebration of Christmas. We will be hosting two special services to commemorate this season of joy. First, the children of FBC will be blessing us with a Christmas Pageant telling the story of our savior's birth on Sunday, December 19 at 10:00AM. It is the story told through the voices of children with intermixed caroling, as we reflect on the wonder God clothing Himself in humanity to redeem all of mankind. Then, on Christmas Eve, Friday, December 24 at 4:00PM; we will be hosting an "Early Bird" Candlelight Service to usher in the birth of our savior. As always our ordinary Sunday Services are held every Sunday at 10:00AM at 4 North St. Plymouth - in the stone building across the Plymouth Green. We hope to see you there. Monthly Musings

March of the Seasons by Jane M. Bailey

Since retirement, it's hard to keep track of what day it is. Okay, I confess, sometimes even what season it is. Is this Monday or Wednesday? Oh, it's snowing. Must be winter. Don't laugh. Just wait. Your turn will come.

When my mother would say things like that, I'd laugh and say, "Mom, of course it's Tuesday, November 9 th ." She'd reply, "And exactly how am I supposed to know that?"

In the wisdom of my youth I'd "Well, everyone knows reply, that."

But what if they don't? When Mom went into Memory Care, I learned how wrong I was.

Not everyone knows the difference between December 9 and July 9. In fact, all mom's friends Memory Care were clueless about the calendar. This happened at a time I was teaching first grade. Boy did I know my calendar then!

Every day we had "Calendar Time" to highlight in color the day of the week and draw pictures of what makes the day special. There were holiday stickers on you-know-those-days like Veteran's Day, Halloween, School Break, Valentine's Day and so on. Where does the day fit into the month? Where does the month fit into the season? Where does the season fit into the year. It's a tough curriculum in first grade! That was a long time ago. Now preschool children can teach me where today is on the calendar. One morning back then, I woke up with an ah-ha.

Drum-roll please: Mom needs a calendar in her Memory Care room! Not just any calendar. A giant one. We need stickers...big ones! And decorations! It was time to make her Memory Care room into a first-grade classroom. I know. It sounds demeaning. But I'm there now. Not yet Memory Care, but certainly in need of retirement grounding. Guess what? I'm proud of my calendar. And proud of my stickers Veteran's Day. Must be November. Yes, I see the

The trouble starts Thanksgiving morning when Santa arrives at 34 th Street in his sleigh at the end of the Macy's parade.

Wait! Is this the end of fall? Should I have my Christmas decorations up? What day is it? When is the new season? Does shopping season (aka Black Friday) constitute a new season? Maybe I should find some shopping decorations to hang before the Christmas decorations go up. God bless Amazon. My problem is solved. My porch is already decorated with those Amazon boxes that arrive almost daily. Now I can wait for the official start of winter to do my snowing, let it snow! Bring in those Fourth of July flags and hang the wreaths. Time marches to its own drummer.

For December, the local restaurant of the month is Marketplace Tavern located at 7 North St., Litchfield, CT, 06759.

"This place is definitely worth the trip. I had a burger with truffle French fries on the outdoor patio. The burger was beyond delicious and the ambiance was fantastic. The building is the old Litchfield jail and former correctional facility with the capacity of 120 inmates. It's the town's oldest building (circa 1812). The scenery on the way was breathtaking. I would recommend that you make this a one day road trip. There are lots of quaint shops and a lot of history near this restaurant."

Mayor Kilduff's Monthly Corner

First off, I would like to thank the citizens of Plymouth for expressing their confidence in me by electing me to serve as your mayor. Whether you voted for me or not, I give you my word that I will spend every day of my term trying to make Plymouth a better place. I would also like to thank Mayor Merchant for his service to our community and for all he did over his four terms as mayor. During my first few weeks, I've been meeting with chairs of our boards and commissions and department heads establishing good communication between them and my administration. I plan to continue doing this and touching base with each one of them into early

A special thanks to our Beautification Committee and Plymouth 225 for their collaboration on our tree lighting this year held on the Plymouth Green. It was a wonderful event that featured our elementary school students signing carols for the audience, Santa and Mrs. Claus arriving via a fire truck, horse and carriage rides and of course - a tree lighting! Thank you to the many organizations that donated to make this event happen and I can't wait to attend next year again!

The Route 6 project is scheduled to begin this spring. The State will be aligning N. Main Street and Agney Ave. I will provide more details as we get them. The Harwinton Avenue project will not be completed on-time. Unfortunately, I do not have an updated timeframe yet, but I will share that with you all as soon as we do. This winter, please remember if you have a fire hydrant on your property to clear the area around it after a snowstorm so our fire department can access it if needed.

As we begin the holiday season, I truly wish that you and your families have a joyous and peaceful season. Take some of the stress out of your life and always keep in mind what the season is all about
